Conspiracy to Commit Concealment Money Laundering and Transactional Money Laundering in violation of Title 18 U.S.C. § 1956(h) as charged in Count 1 of the First Superseding Indictment.

JUDGMENT AND PROB/
COMM ORDER

The Court asked whether there was any reason why judgment should not be pronounced. Because no sufficient cause to the contrary was shown, or appeared to the Court, the Court adjudged the defendant guilty as charged and convicted and ordered that: Pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, it is the judgment of the Court that the defendant is hereby placed on PROBATION for a term of: TWO (2) YEARS.

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $100, which is due immediately.

Pursuant to Guideline Section 5E1.2(a), all fines are waived as the Court finds that the defendant has established that she is unable to pay a fine and is not likely to become able to pay any fine.

Pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, it is the judgment of the Court that the defendant is hereby placed on PROBATION on Count 1 of the First Superseding Indictment for a term of TWO (2) YEARS under the following terms and conditions:

1. The defendant shall comply with the rules and regulations of the United States Probation and Pretrial Services Office and Second Amended General Order 20-04.
2. The defendant shall not commit any violation of federal, state, or local law or ordinance.
3. During the period of probation the defendant shall participate for a period of THREE (3) MONTHS in a home detention program which may include electronic monitoring, GPS, or voice recognition and shall observe all rules of such program, as directed by the Probation Officer. The defendant shall be permitted to engage in gainful employment and drive herself to and from medical appointments.
4. The defendant shall pay the costs of home confinement monitoring to the contract vendor, not to exceed the sum of $12 for each day of participation. The defendant shall provide payment and proof of payment as directed by the Probation Officer. If the defendant has no ability to pay, no payment shall be required.
5. During the period of community supervision, the defendant shall pay the special assessment in accordance with this judgment's orders pertaining to such payment.
6. After the completion of home detention, the defendant shall perform 200 hours of community service over the course of her probationary period as directed by the Probation Officer.

USA vs. LISA IFEOMA ONACHUKWU OKOLIDocket No.: CR 18-799(A)-DMG

7. The defendant shall submit her person, property, house, residence, vehicle, papers, email accounts, social media accounts, cloud storage accounts, or other areas under the defendant's control, to a search conducted by a United States Probation Officer or law enforcement officer. Failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation. The defendant shall warn any other occupants that the premises may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition. Any search pursuant to this condition will be conducted at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner upon reasonable suspicion that the defendant has violated a condition of her supervision and that the areas to be searched contain evidence of this violation.
8. The defendant shall report this conviction to the Illinois Division of Real Estate, and to any other State in which the defendant has been licensed, and thereafter comply with any orders, including any employment or business restrictions. Further, the defendant shall show proof to the Probation Officer of compliance with this Order.
9. The defendant shall cooperate in the collection of a DNA sample.

The drug testing condition mandated by statute is suspended based on the Court's determination that the defendant poses a low risk of future substance abuse.

The Court dismisses all remaining counts of the underlying indictment as to this defendant.

The bond is exonerated as to this defendant.

The Court informs the defendant of her right to appeal.

In addition to the special conditions of supervision imposed above, it is hereby ordered that the Standard Conditions of Probation and Supervised Release within this judgment be imposed. The Court may change the conditions of supervision, reduce or extend the period of supervision, and at any time during the supervision period or within the maximum period permitted by law, may issue a warrant and revoke supervision for a violation occurring during the supervision period.
